

ANTE PORTAS

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Ante Portas – Security Studies (ISSN 2353-6306) is a semiannual journal published since 2012 by the Department of National Security of the College of Business and Entrepreneurship in Ostrowiec Świętokrzyski. Ante Portas is an academic, interdisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal, which concern the most crucial aspects of social sciences, with particular emphasis put on:

- military and political aspects of security;
- economic security;
- cybersecurity;
- international relations;
- geopolitics;
- history of the security systems
- internal security
- Social, cultural and environmental aspects of security
- crisis management
- and other...

Information for authors:

We ask to submit proposals of the articles on e-mail address:

redakcja@anteportas.pl

Prepared texts can be sent continuously.

In any questions we ask for contact via e-mail.

For detailed editorial requirements see: <http://anteportas.pl/en/for-authors/>

We accept article only in English. Submissions should not have been previously published. All submissions are subject to double blind peer review. Texts should be fully proofed for grammatical and typographical errors before submission.

Ante Portas – Security Studies aim is to contribute high quality research to a multidisciplinary and international audience:

- International representation: More than 100 scholars from around the world have submitted and published articles in the journal. Among reviewers and academic council can be found respected scientists from Europe, Africa, Asia and both Americas.
- Prompt publishing: We provide publishing two volumes within a year. Authors receive the decisions within 90 days from new manuscript submission.
- Global exposure: Open-access and indexing in all major academic databases ensure increased number of citations and recognition.

Our partners

